

ARCHBISHOP'S CATHOLIC APPEAL

ARCHDIOCESE OF DENVER

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Each year, I come to you requesting your support to extend Christ's message of service to others through the ministries provided by your archdiocese. We have made it through an extraordinary year, and you answered my call with a resounding "yes." Our largest fundraiser of the year was able to serve more people than ever before, including emergency assistance to your parish.

As we approach the 2021 Archbishop's Catholic Appeal commitment weekend, I encourage you to visualize the people whom your gift will benefit this year: the hungry and homeless, the unborn, our seminarians, our school children, our teenagers, our college students, our young couples, and our senior citizens. Yes, your donation will have a tremendous impact on individuals in all ages and stages of life. Believe me, your gift will accomplish more than you realize.

Your Archbishop's Catholic Appeal gifts will enable our Archdiocesan Church to ease, guide, and comfort the needs of thousands in what remains a challenging time.

I ask all members of our parish community to commit to this year's Appeal. Please join your fellow parishioners in their conviction that our united sacrifices will produce abundant fruit in the lives of others. Together, we can attain what seems unattainable. Commitment cards will be available at Mass next weekend.

On behalf of the thousands who will be uplifted because of your generous response, thank you.

May our Lord bless you with his peace.

Sincerely and gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L.
Archbishop of Denver
