

ARCHBISHOP'S CATHOLIC APPEAL

ANNOUNCEMENT WEEKEND (April 23-24) PULPIT LETTER

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Each year, I come to you requesting your support to help extend Jesus Christ's call to service to others through the ministries present in our archdiocese. Our largest fundraiser of the year was able to serve more people than ever before, including emergency assistance to families displaced by the Marshall Fire.

As we approach the 2022 Archbishop's Catholic Appeal commitment weekend, I encourage you to visualize the people whom your gift will benefit this year: the hungry and homeless, the unborn, our seminarians, our school children, our teenagers, our college students, our young couples, and our senior citizens. Yes, your donation will have a tremendous impact on individuals in all ages and stages of life.

Our mission as Catholics calls us to serve others with love and your Archbishop's Catholic Appeal gifts will enable the local Church to ease, guide, and comfort the needs of thousands.

I ask all members of our parish communities to commit to this year's appeal. Please join your fellow parishioners in their conviction that our united sacrifices will abundantly serve the lives of others. Commitment cards will be available at Mass next weekend.

On behalf of the thousands who will be uplifted because of your generous response, thank you.

May our Lord bless you with his peace.

Sincerely and gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L.
Archbishop of Denver
